 First to Review

Do NOT use this pet service. Karen the owner did not show up for our first Meet and Greet. She forgot to put it on her calendar. When we were on vacation she emailed me because she misplaced our file and did not know how to get into our house. She agreed to email and send photos of our cat. She emailed ONCE and never sent a photo. When we came home from vacation our cats two water bowls were completely empty and her water fountain was almost empty of water. I questioned her when we got home she told me that she couldn't come over on one of our agreed days (car problems) she said she intended to come over the next day but she completely forgot. How do you forget to come over when it was agreed on and how do you forget about a customers pet. I am sick to my stomach over using her and leaving my cat in her care. I don't understand how she can run a business this way and how do you forget to feed and check on the pets water. If you care about your pet do not use From My House To Yours. This is an honest an accurate review.
