See this person's Facebook profile below? Her name is Vicki Cubbage. She hired me online last August 2021 to post on my Facebook timelines (both personal & business) a job offer to recruit individuals as drivers to pick-up people at various airport locations & I even paid for advertising out of pocket but was never reimbursed. She received over 200 recruits from my Facebook advertising efforts. This woman owes me OVER $8,000 AND NEVER PAID ME! I have since been in contact with her and every week she promises to pay me if I open various online bank accounts & give her my online confidential access information. Since each online registration did not require any out of pocket money of my own, I did this (a few accounts anyway), but she never paid me going all the way back to August. For my time over the last 8 months she now owes me OVER $12,000. Sadly, she has NEVER paid me OR reimbursed me for my out of pocket advertising dollars here on Facebook. Yes..... apparently I have been scammed and I could really use THAT money to live on now & pay back friends/family who have loaned me money to help me keep my small business afloat during the Pandemic & my health crisis (I am living through bi-lateral breast cancer since July of 2020). My last resort is to blast this person's Facebook profile all over Facebook so she doesn't recruit anyone else & scam them as well! I believe that she is a part of a money laundering scheme as her business, however, U have no proof of that. She is also most likely the individual who has sold my confidential financial information on the dark web these past 8 months since my personal debit card has been compromised 3 times in the past 8 months along with one of my personal bank accounts (both of which I never gave her access to). She claims to be a Christian & a Minister.....I sincerely doubt that --- taking advantage of me like she has. All I can do now is report this low life to Facebook & hope that they block her from taking advantage of anyone else.

IF you would.....please everyoneplease SHARE this story & her profile on your Facebook timeline, her Facebook name is Vicki Cabbage. Thank you so very much!W
