About The Author

Ken Christensen, author, artist and entrepreneur, developed the Romantic America Book Series in 1990 and researched, wrote and published 25 books covering 43 states and British Columbia. With the aftershocks of 9/11 affecting the travel industry and dealing with a debilitating family illness, Romantic America fell by the wayside.

In 2003 Ken became a pool technician which allowed him a flexible schedule to spend quality time with his fatally ill wife, Cindy.

Turning lemons into lemonade, Ken wrote and published I Love My Pool ~ The Perfect Pool In Five Easy Steps in 2008 and then, in his mid 50s, went to college to enhance his design and marketing skills. It was a tough road afterwards in 2010 when he realized he couldn't find a job because he was too old and / or had too much experience (30+ years of printing and marketing) and he almost wound up living on the streets with no social services available to him (paid taxes for 45+ years)!

In time, things turned around for Ken and he became increasingly involved with Social Media Marketing and designing videos tied in with expansive e-mail promotions (over 200+ videos to this day). Today, semi-retired, his love of writing, designing and marketing inspired him to write his 28th book, The Art Of Romance.
